Few people would want to trade places with this poet for whom "pain sits, pain floats, pain/ waits;/ pain is," but plenty will continue to cherish his unpretentious words. Sun, 11 Nov 2018 12:56:00 GMT The Continual Condition (pre-publication) - Charles Bukowski - Charles Bukowski died of leukemia in 1994, but you hardly know it. In the years since, his longtime editor has overseen the publication of a shelf of books, including three volumes of letters and at least ten of new poems (of which the most recent, published a couple of years ago, was supposed to be the very last).
